

Privacy Policy

FUNTERS is committed to protecting the privacy of its customer's and safeguarding the information we have collected. Our privacy policy is detailed in this policy document.

FUNTERS is bound by the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988 (including the National Privacy Principles) ("Privacy Act"), and as such, this policy has been drafted in accordance to the principles concerning the protection of your personal information.

By providing your personal information to FUNTERS, either through our website, our staff or otherwise, you agree to the collection, use and disclosure of that information in accordance with this Privacy Policy. If you do not consent to certain uses of your personal information, we may not be able to provide you with a particular product or service. This policy is a public document and has been prepared in light of the National Privacy Principle 5: Openness.

1.0 Collection

1.1 FUNTERS will only collect Personal Information where the information is necessary for FUNTERS to perform one or more of its functions or activities. In this context, "collect" means gather, acquire or obtain by any means, information in circumstances where the individual is identifiable or identified.

1.2 FUNTERS collects Personal Information primarily to supply customers with the products and services ordered. FUNTERS also collects and uses Personal Information for secondary purposes including (but not limited to):

- billing and account management.
- business planning and product development; and
- to provide individuals with information about promotions, as well as the products and services of other FUNTERS companies and other organisations.

1.3 FUNTERS will take reasonable steps to notify individuals (including, but not limited to, our customers) of the matters listed below at or before collecting any personal information. This includes if the information is collected from someone else.

- the purpose for which we are collecting the information.
- our identity and how individuals can contact us, if this is not obvious.
- that individuals can access the personal information that FUNTERS holds about them.
- that individuals should contact us if wish to access or correct personal information collected by us or have any concerns in relation to personal information; the organisations or types of organisations to whom we usually disclose the personal information including related bodies corporates and contractors; where applicable, any law that requires the personal information to be collected;
- the consequences (if any) for the individual if all or part of the personal information is not provided to FUNTERS.

1.4 Where it is not practicable for FUNTERS to notify individuals of all of the Collection Information before the collection of Personal Information, FUNTERS will ensure that individuals are notified of the Collection Information as soon as possible after the collection.

1.5 FUNTERS will collect personal information only by lawful and fair means and not in an unreasonably intrusive way. Where possible, FUNTERS will collect Personal Information about that Individual from that Individual.

2.0 Use and Disclosure

2.1 FUNTERS will not use or disclose personal information about an individual for a purpose (secondary purpose) other than the primary purpose of collection unless:

- the individual has consented to the use or disclosure; or
- the secondary purpose is related to the primary purpose of collection and, if the personal information is sensitive information, directly related to the primary purpose of collection and the individual would reasonably expect FUNTERS to use or disclose the information for the secondary purpose.

2.2 FUNTERS Uses Personal Information primarily for the purposes listed in 1.2 above.

2.3 If FUNTERS conducts any Direct Marketing to individuals it will ensure that:

- the individual has not made a request to FUNTERS not to receive direct marketing communications.
- the individual is clearly notified of their right to Opt Out from further Direct Marketing.
- there is only one Use of the information before the Opt Out right is given
- the individual is given an Opt Out in all further instances of Direct Marketing if they have not previously chosen to Opt Out; and
- if the individual Opts Out of all Direct Marketing the Opt Out will be respected by FUNTERS.

2.4 FUNTERS may also use Personal Information for reasons related to law enforcement or internal investigations into unlawful activities.

2.5 FUNTERS may Disclose Personal Information to related or unrelated third parties if consent has been obtained from the individual. This will include obtaining the individual's consent for Disclosures made under the credit reporting requirements of the Privacy Act.

2.6 FUNTERS may Disclose Personal Information to law enforcement agencies, government agencies, courts or external advisers where permitted or required by law.

2.7 If a Disclosure is not for a Primary Purpose; is not for a related Secondary Purpose; or upfront consent has not been obtained, FUNTERS will not Disclose Personal Information otherwise than in accordance with the exceptions set out at 2.5 to 2.7 above.

2.8 FUNTERS will not use Personal Information without taking reasonable steps to ensure that the information is accurate, complete and up to date.

2.9 FUNTERS does not generally sell or share its customer lists on a commercial basis with third parties but if it did, it would only do so if we had the appropriate consent of the individual involved.

3.0 Information quality

3.1 FUNTERS will take reasonable steps to ensure that the information it collects, uses and discloses is accurate, complete and up to date.

4.0 Information security

4.1 FUNTERS requires employees and contractors to perform their duties in a manner that is consistent with FUNTERS' legal responsibilities in relation to privacy.

4.2 FUNTERS will take all reasonable steps to ensure that paper and electronic records containing Personal Information are stored in facilities that are only accessible by employees of the company for the sole purpose of performing their job.

4.3 FUNTERS will review, on a regular and ongoing basis, its information security practices ascertaining how ongoing responsibilities can be achieved and maintained.

4.4 FUNTERS will take reasonable steps to destroy or permanently de-identify personal information if it is no longer needed for any purpose.

5.0 Openness

5.1 FUNTERS Privacy Officer will be the first point of contact for inquiries about privacy issues. Individuals wishing to make an inquiry or complaint regarding privacy should do so by contacting FUNTERS' Privacy Officer.

5.2 FUNTERS website will include a copy of this Privacy Policy.

5.3 This Privacy Policy is a publicly available document and is accessible by the general public.

5.4 On request by a person, FUNTERS will take reasonable steps to let the person know, generally, the sort of personal information it holds, for what purpose, and how it collects, holds, uses and discloses that information.

6.0 Access and correction

6.1 FUNTERS will allow its records containing Personal Information to be accessed by the individual concerned in accordance with the Privacy Act.

6.2 FUNTERS will correct its records containing Personal Information as soon as practically possible, at the request of the individual concerned in accordance with the Privacy Act.

6.3 Individuals wishing to lodge a request to access and/or correct their Personal Information should do so by contacting FUNTERS' Privacy Officer.

6.4 FUNTERS may charge a fee for processing an access request.

7.0 Anonymous transactions

7.1 FUNTERS will not make it mandatory for visitors to its web sites to provide Personal Information.

8.0 Transferring personal information overseas

8.1 FUNTERS will only send Personal Information to an unrelated organisation overseas where:

- the individual has provided consent to the transfer; or
- the transfer is necessary for the performance of a contract between the individual and the organisation; or
- the transfer is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract concluded in the interest of the individual between the organisation and a third party; or
- the transfer is for the benefit of the individual and it was impracticable to obtain the consent of the individual prior to that transfer and if it were practicable to obtain such consent, the individual would be likely to give the consent.
